STORYTELLING:

Exploring Memories and Traditional Tales for Life Learning

2017 Tuesdays 10:30am –12:15pm

April 4, 25, May 2, 9, 16

Instructor: Marni Gillard, professional storyteller

Retired educator, Ms. Gillard authored Storyteller, Storyteacher to teach the transformational experience of story sharing in classroom and adult life.

She now works as a teaching-artist in various educational settings.

$79 $69 JCC Member

Prepaid registration due by March 20th or before class fills.

Explore stories you've heard over a lifetime or think of your life moments as stories.

Learn to tell a folktale that touches your heart.

Learn the importance of imagining

and providing sensory detail -sound, scent, color, texture-inviting your listener into the world of your story.

Experience the power of receiving and offering deep listening and appreciation of each others' tales.

CLASSES ARE DESIGNED TO BE FUN AND INTERACTIVE.

You will find your own way into the art of storytelling. There is no right way.

We will rehearse in pairs using a model of appreciating what we notice and asking questions. NO CRITIQUING.*
