

Sidney Albert Albany Jewish Community Center prestigious youth awards

Herbert A Applebaum Memorial Award (for males) and Lenore Bellin Memorial Award (for females)

Purpose

The purpose of the 2019 Applebaum (Male) and Bellin (Female) awards is to honor high school seniors who have established outstanding leadership in the Sidney Albert Albany Jewish Community Center, synagogue, school and/or community. Herbert Applebaum and Lenore Bellin were both active members of the Albany JCC who passed away at the age of 19.

The evaluation will be based upon the following criteria:

- ❑ Leadership and Involvement in an Albany Jewish youth organization and/or synagogue
- ❑ Involvement at the Albany JCC
- ❑ Involvement in High School activities (Hebrew or secular)
- ❑ Volunteer programs
- ❑ Employment experience
- ❑ For consideration, an individual must fill out an application and write an essay. The application will include a brief synopsis of why s/he should be considered for the award and should review all pertinent accomplishments and involvements.

Applications are available from Andrew Katz at the Albany JCC. Contact him at 518-438-6651 ext. 113 or AndrewK@albanyjcc.org
